Exempt Information

Please note that requests made under the Rhode Island Privacy Laws will not apply to data exempt from the requirements of the Rhode Island Privacy Laws. Specifically, publicly available data i.e., data that is lawfully made available from federal, state, or municipal government records or through widely distributed media, or the consumer has lawfully made available to the general public, subject to certain exclusions) is exempt from the requirements of the Rhode Island Privacy Laws. The Rhode Island Privacy Laws also exempt certain data that is subject to the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA), the Driver's Privacy Protection Act (DPPA), and certain other laws. Additionally, data may be exempt if it is deidentified.

Privacy Notices

For additional information, please review our privacy notice for Rhode Island consumers.

The LexisNexis Risk Solutions Companies State Privacy Act Notice is available here:

<https://risk.lexisnexis.com/state-privacy-act-notice>.

As a Rhode Island resident, you have the Right to Know, the Right to Delete, the Right to Correct Inaccurate Personal Information, the Right to Opt-Out, and the Right to Not Be Discriminated Against.

Right to Opt-Out

You have the right to opt out of the processing of personal data for purposes of (i) targeted advertising, (ii) the sale of personal data, or (iii) profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning you.

We will process the request electronically, by phone, or through U.S. Mail. We will typically process your opt-out request within two weeks of receipt of the request.

You may exercise your right to opt-out by submitting a Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information request here: <https://consumer.risk.lexisnexis.com/request>.

Right to Know

You have the right to know about the personal data processed about you. The Right to Know includes:

(i) To confirm whether or not we are processing personal data about you and if so to access such personal data; (ii) To obtain a copy of any personal data that you previously provided to us in a portable format.

We will process the request electronically, by phone, or through U.S. Mail. We will typically process your Right to Know request within two weeks of receipt of the request, but not longer than 45 days.

Once we have verified and processed your report request, you will receive a letter in the U.S. Mail with additional information explaining how you can access your report online.

If we cannot verify your identity, your request may be denied, but you can contact us to confirm your identity. You can access additional information about us at: <https://consumer.risk.lexisnexis.com/privacy>.

If you or the members of your household jointly make a Right to Know request, then the identity of each member of the household will need to be verified.

Right to Delete

You have the right to request the deletion of personal data concerning you.

In response to a request to delete, when personal data has been collected from a source other than you, we may (i) retain a record of the deletion request and the minimum data necessary for the purpose of ensuring your personal data remains deleted from our records or (ii) opt you out of the processing of such personal data for all purposes except those which are exempt under law.

We will process the request electronically, by phone, or through U.S. Mail depending on how you have elected to submit the request. We will typically process your Right to Delete request within two weeks of receipt of the request, but not longer than 45 days.

If we cannot verify your identity, your request may be denied, but you can contact us to confirm your identity. You can access additional information about us at: <https://consumer.risk.lexisnexis.com/privacy>.

The Right to Delete will also not apply to personal data subject to an exception under the Rhode Island Privacy Laws, including but not limited to personal data used to:

- Prevent, detect, protect against, or respond to security incidents, identity theft, fraud, harassment, malicious or deceptive activities, or any illegal activity; preserve the integrity or security of systems; or investigate, report, or prosecute those responsible for such actions.
- Comply with a legal obligation.

If you or the members of your household jointly make a Right to Delete request, then the identity of each member of the household will need to be verified.

Right to Correct Inaccurate Personal Information

You have the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information maintained about you taking into account the nature of the personal data and the purpose for processing the personal data. We will accept, review, and consider any documentation that you provide in connection with your Right to Correct. Additional documentation may also be requested if necessary.

In some instances, in response to a request to correct, the inaccurate personal information may be deleted instead of being corrected.

A request to correct may be denied where the contested personal information is more likely than not accurate based on the totality of the circumstances.

We will typically process your Right to Correct request within two weeks of receipt of the request, but not longer than 45 days.

If we cannot verify your identity, your request may be denied, but you can contact us to confirm your identity. You can access additional information about us at: <https://consumer.risk.lexisnexis.com/privacy>.

Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of a Consumer's Privacy Rights

You have the right to not be discriminated against in pricing and services because you exercise any of your rights under the Rhode Island Privacy Laws.
